Invitation for street artists and groups with unique expression of your own creativity

Frivolus is a festival of street artists and street art, where professional artists and groups who operate outside the commercial theatres and circus, shows their performances on the street.

Under the auspices of the Municipality of Koper and Luka Koper d.d. the festival will took place in the city of Koper, Slovenia from 6. to 8. September 2019. The three day cultural arts festival will host magicians, jugglers, acrobats, illusionists, actors, musicians and other street artists who will revive the squares, streets and promenades. The program is free of charge and it's open for everybody, from the youngest to the oldest. Busking will be permitted and supported.

The purpose of the festival is to spread the culture of street art and bring it closer to our everyday life. We will support domestic and foreign artists as to give them the opportunity to present themselves to visitors meanwhile enriching street events in Koper.
